FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE LAUISVILLE DEMOCRAT, \(\)?
Wednesday Evenling, May 11, 1888. \(\)
The local money market is devoid of existement, and the banks are abundantly supdied with funds to meet promptly the reprirements of legitlmote business, and tirst-class paper is precupilly discounted at the usual bank rates. In the outside market there is no pressing demand, and cales of interest range from 1 to 12, per cent. a month. The New York gold market opened to day at 129 s, the same as yesterday, and closed at

The weather to-day, like that of nil the days of May, with few exceptions, was nufavorable for losiness to a degree that cleared Main street of vehicles, and shall business men up in their stores, offices and counting-rooms. The rain fell continually, the nir was cold, raw, disagreeadde. This, with the general despondency and auxiety that pervades commercial and linancial circles, was sufficient to

ILAY—The market is quitel, with sales on levee at $11a12 per tun, and $15a15 per tun from spondency and anxiety that pervades commercial and linancial circles, was sufficient to make the day gloomy and business dult in every department.

Impeachment is the lopic everywhere, Ordinous and conjectures are constantly cantassed, and various conclusions arrived ut. If the President is acquitted, it is generally believed business will revive, confidence, ina measure, will be restored, and generally is anticipated. If the President is convicted, and the tide of Radicalism is permitted to sweep over the country unrestrained and unrebuked, a very different sale of things, it is leased, will occur. At present all is doubt and district, and increhants and capitalists are not disposed to make ventures of any kind. Baying from hand to month is alount all that can be expected, and only articles of prime necessity at that.

The provision market continues weak, and a further decline in baccon is noted. The demand is less thou at any period since the season opened. Dealers are rarefully reviewing and beine demand. The probabilities are lavorable for an early reaction in prices, and bigher quotations than have us yet prevailed; but this is by no means certain, healers, however, are not disposed to make constants.
